

Skyway Towers' Investors Increase Total Equity Commitment to $55 Million

Tampa, FL – Skyway Towers, LLC (“Skyway”), a leading wireless communications tower developer, announced today that its investors, Tincum Capital Partners II, L.P. (“TCP”) and Permit Capital Private Equity Fund, L.P. (“Permit”), have increased their equity commitment from $30 million to $55 million.

Skyway will use the additional capital to continue to support its customers’ requirements for high quality wireless communications towers in strategic locations. Dan Behuniak, Skyway’s CEO, said, “Since starting the company in late 2005, we’ve been fortunate to work with a growing list of the largest and most successful wireless service providers in the United States and be supported by two stable and constructive investment partnerships.”

Trip Zedlitz, a partner at TCP, said, “We’ve been delighted with the Skyway’s success in the marketplace and its focus on meeting the needs of the wireless service providers. We are pleased with the pace and results of our investment to date and look forward to financing additional high quality towers.”

About Skyway Towers, LLC

Skyway, based in Tampa, FL and founded by a management team with roots in the wireless carrier industry, develops, owns and operates wireless communications towers throughout the United States. The company has achieved success because it understands the technical and time-sensitive nature of its customers’ needs and strives to exceed expectations. Skyway is consistently recognized by its customers as the most responsive and streamlined tower company in the market place. For more information, visit www.skywaytowers.com.